TIME FOR

...

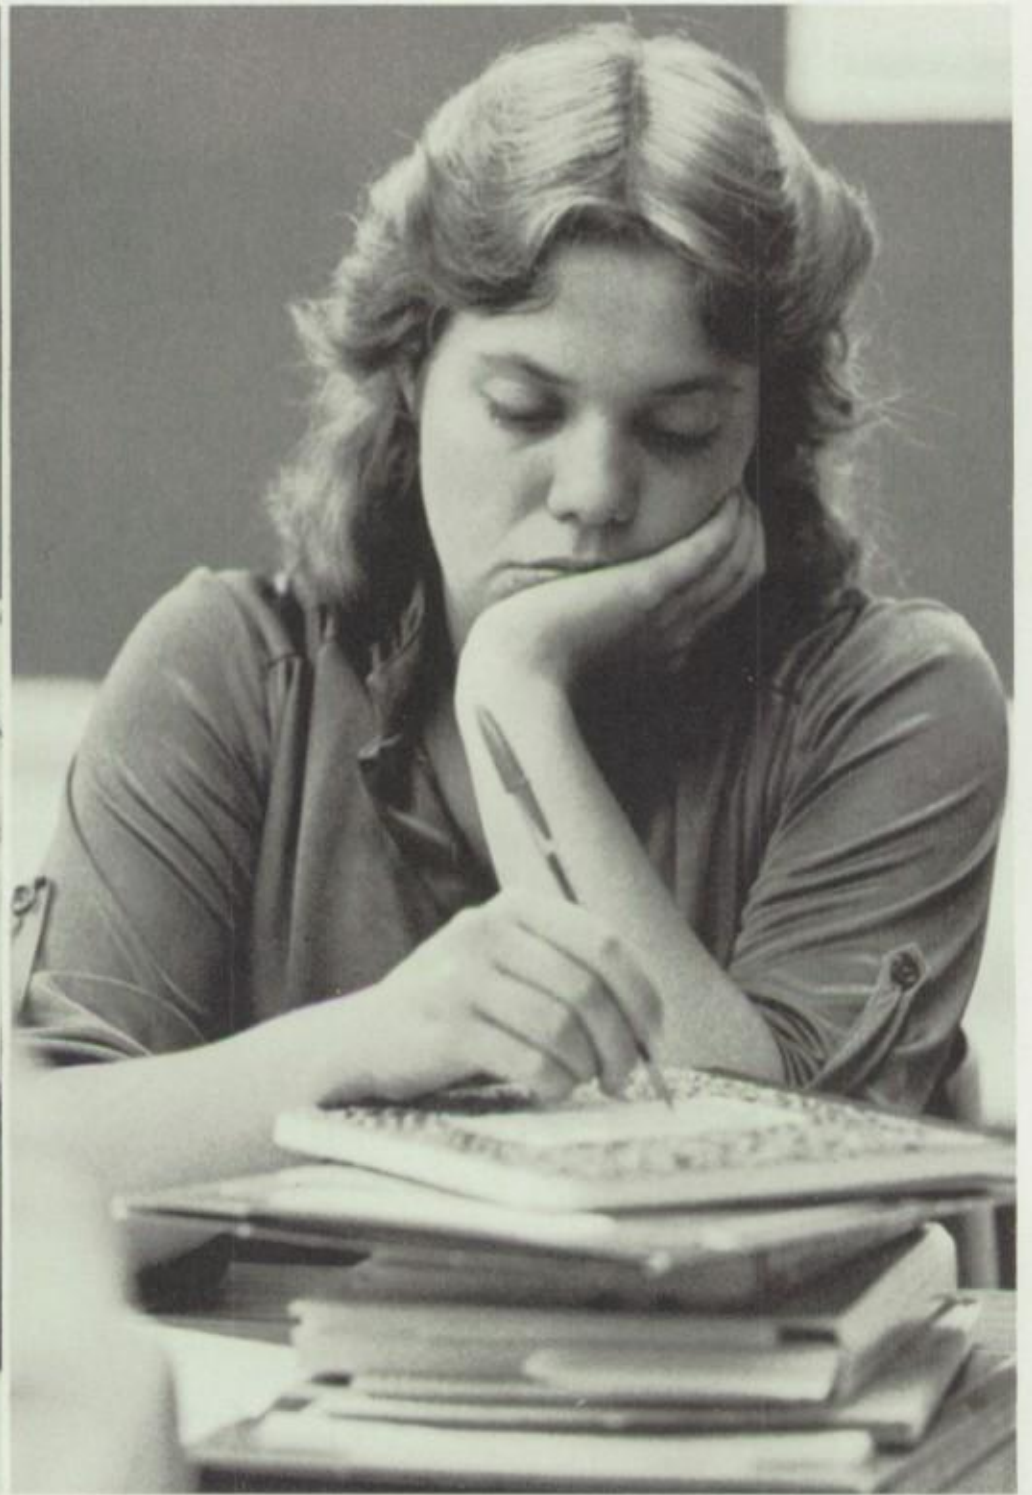

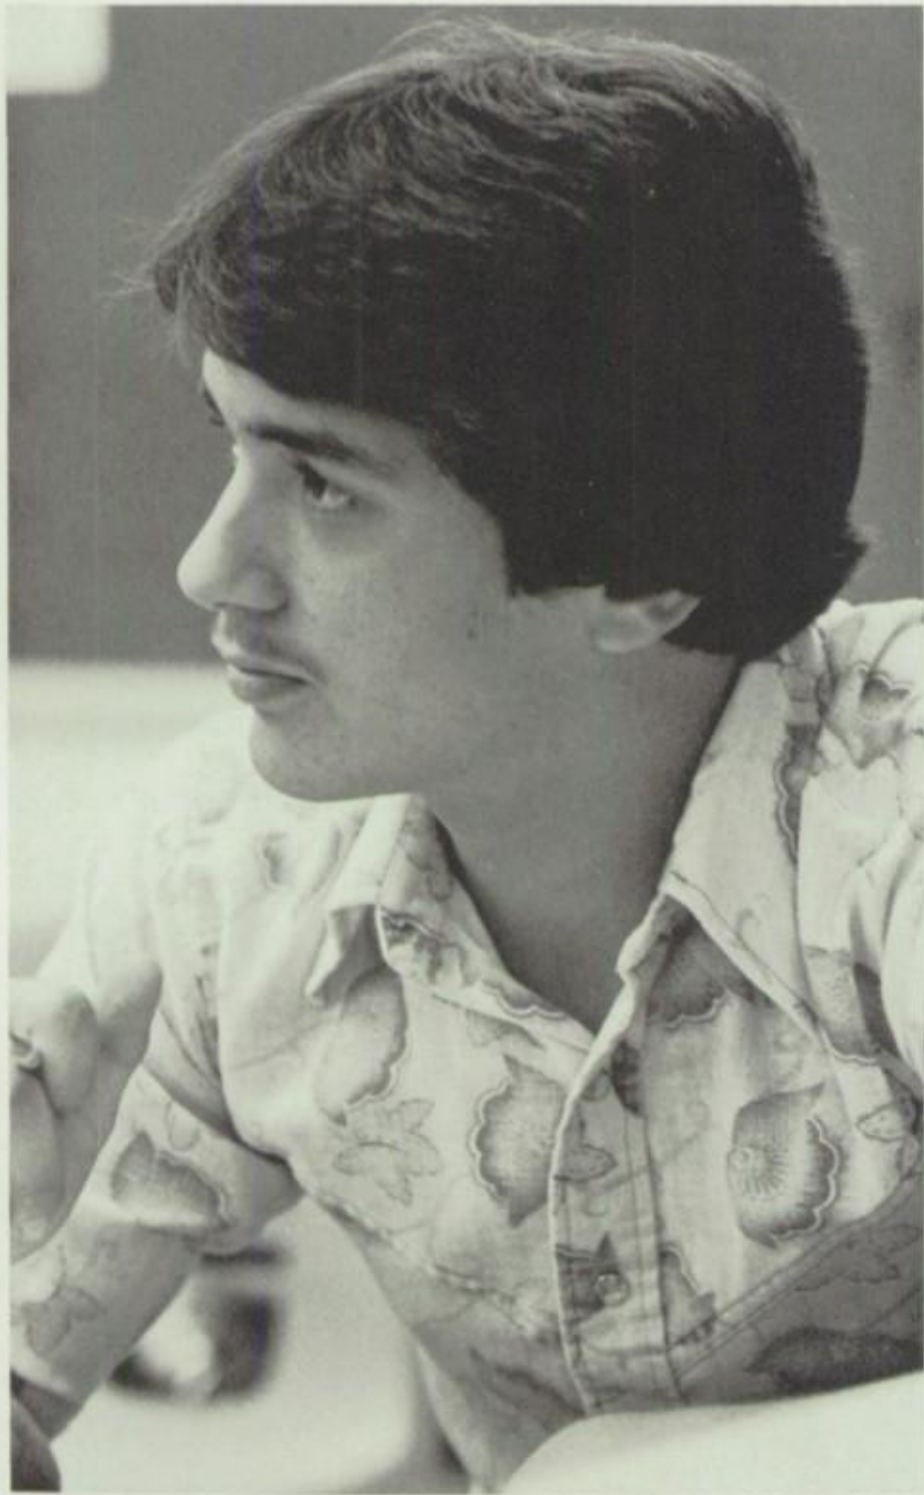

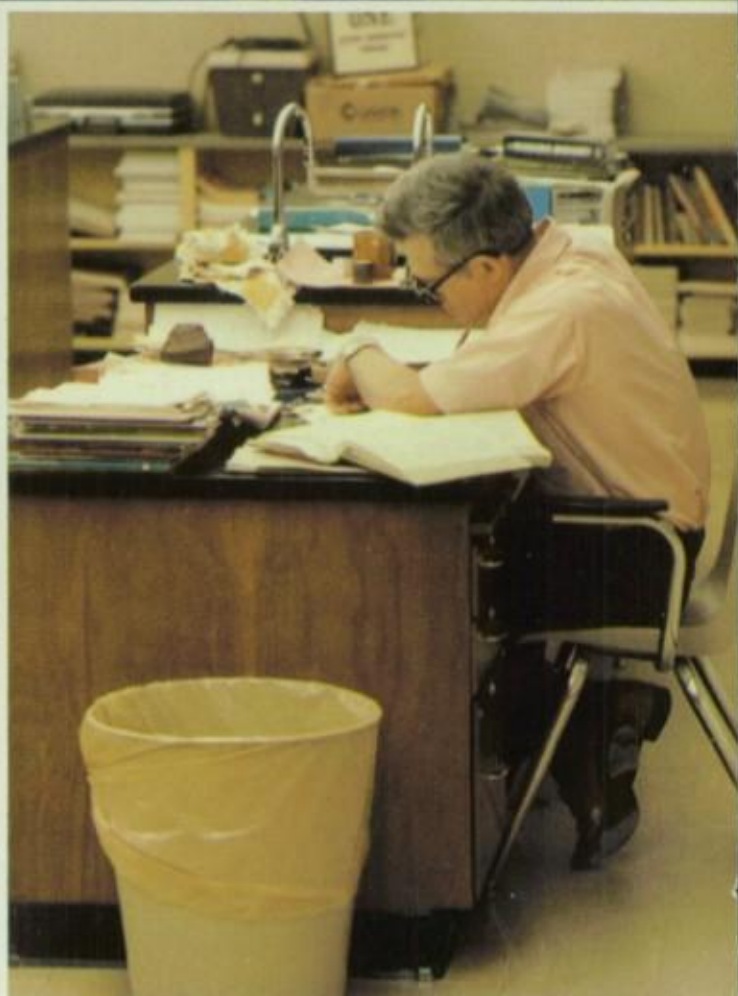

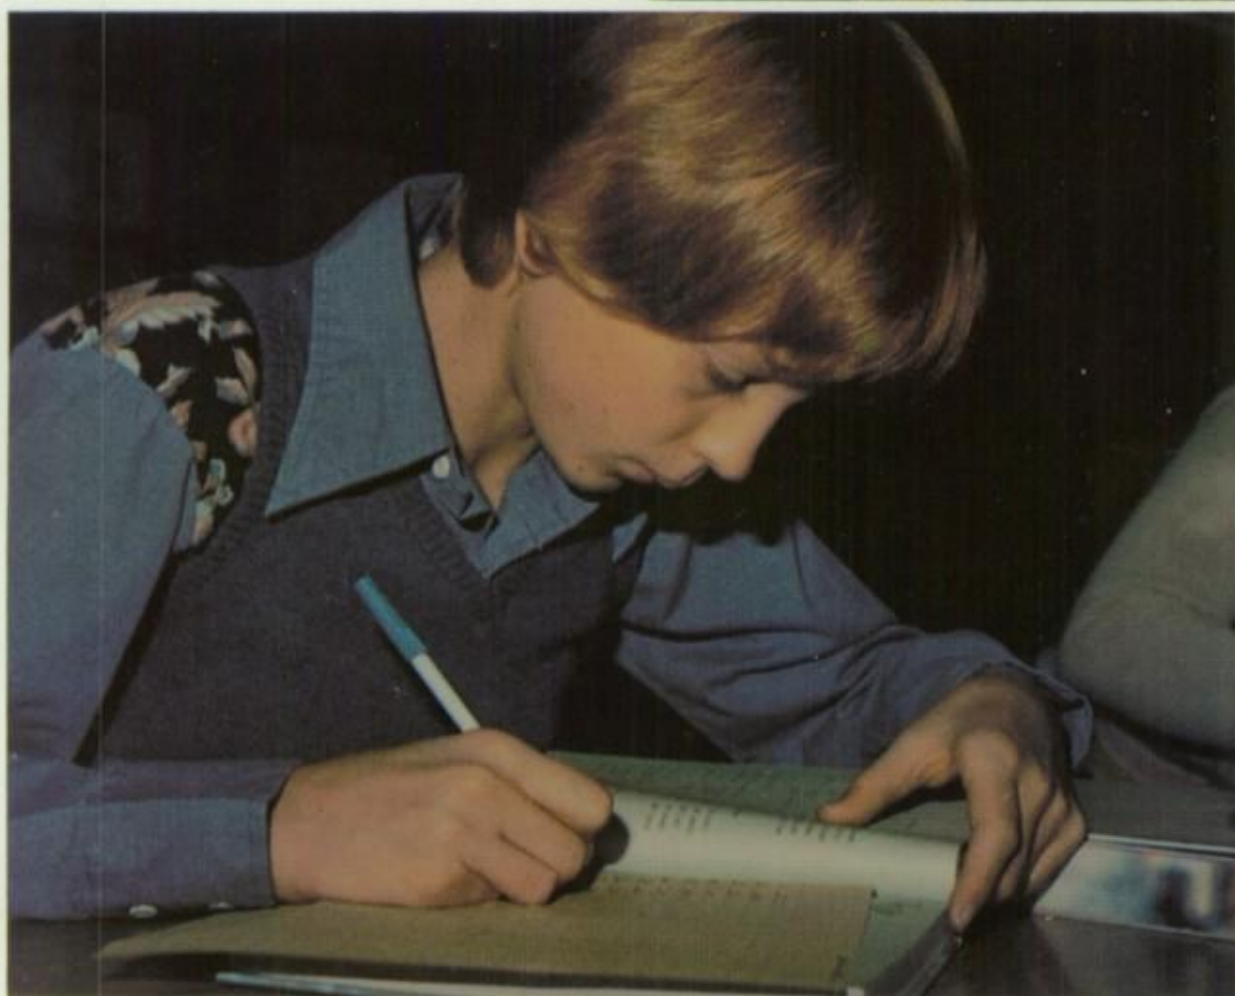

... Preparing ... Reflecting ... Searching ...

... Absorbing ... Doodling ... Joking ...

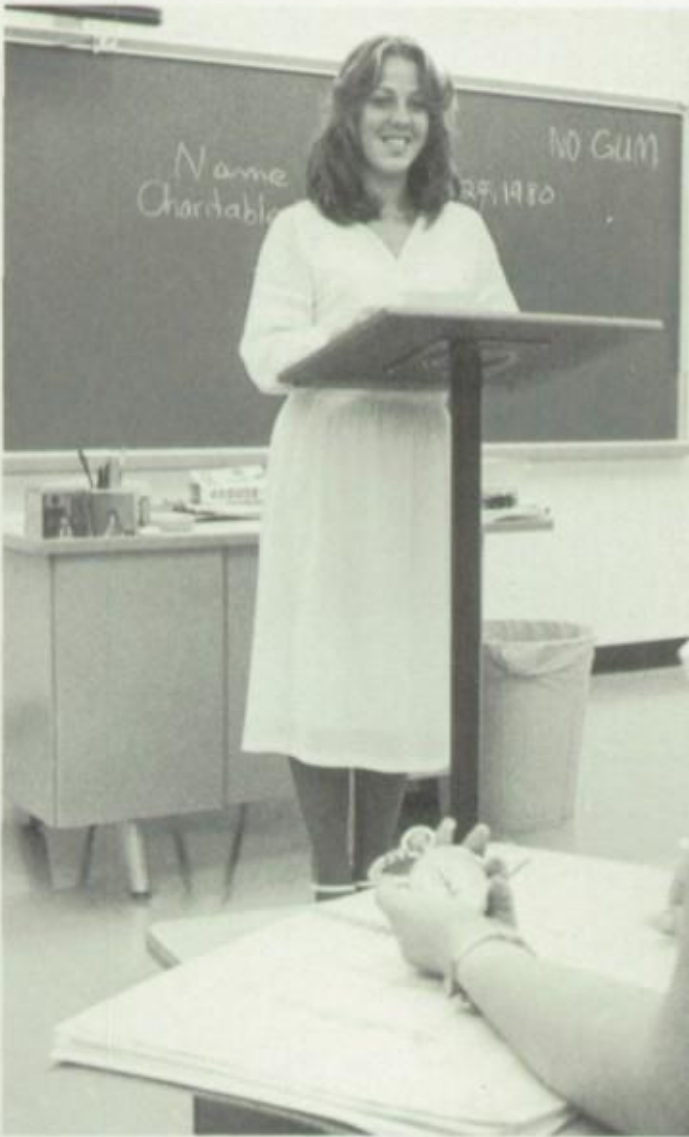

Time —
a friend ...
an enemy ...
indelible ...

... Speaking ... Questioning ... Departing ...

... Creating ... Receiving ... Comparing ...

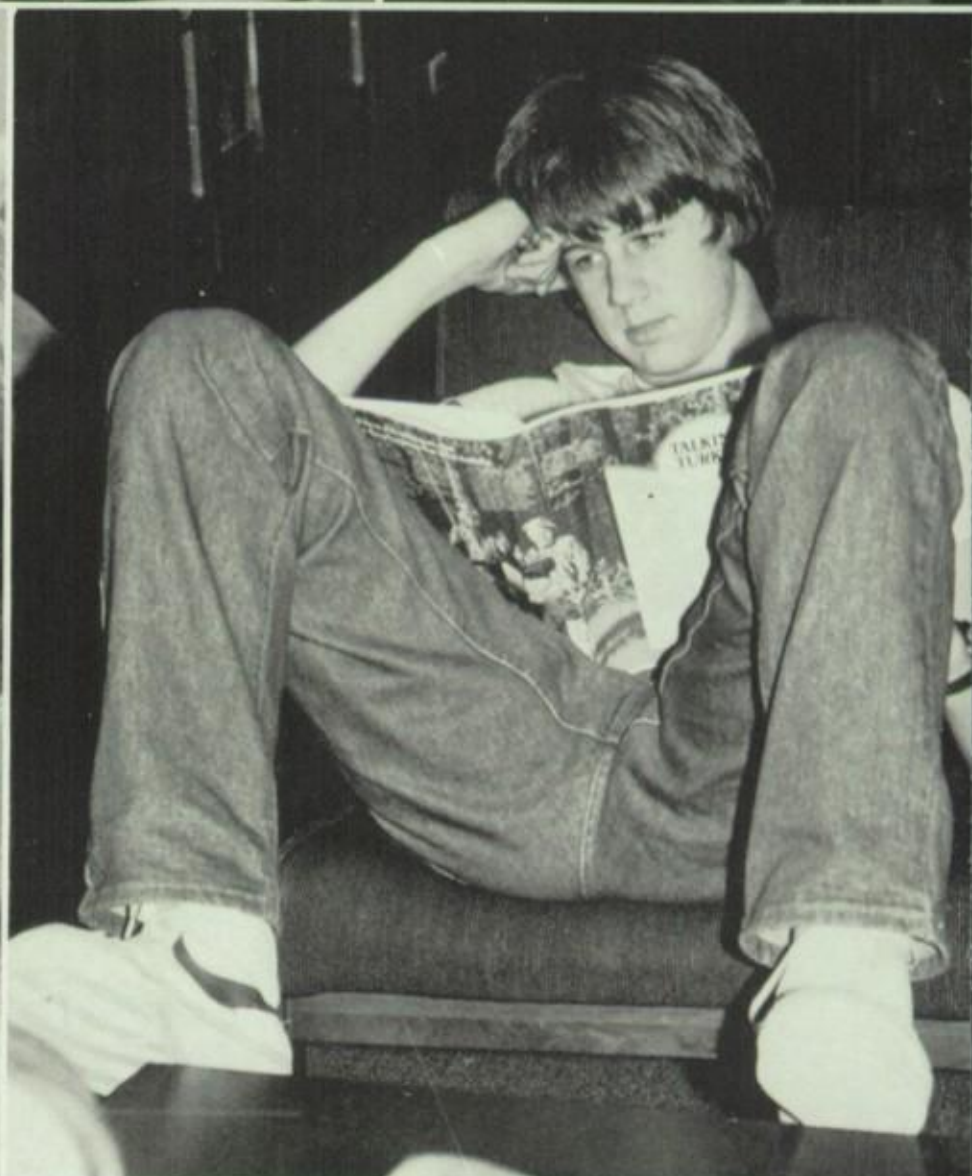

Time —
to experience ...
to share ...
to be together ...

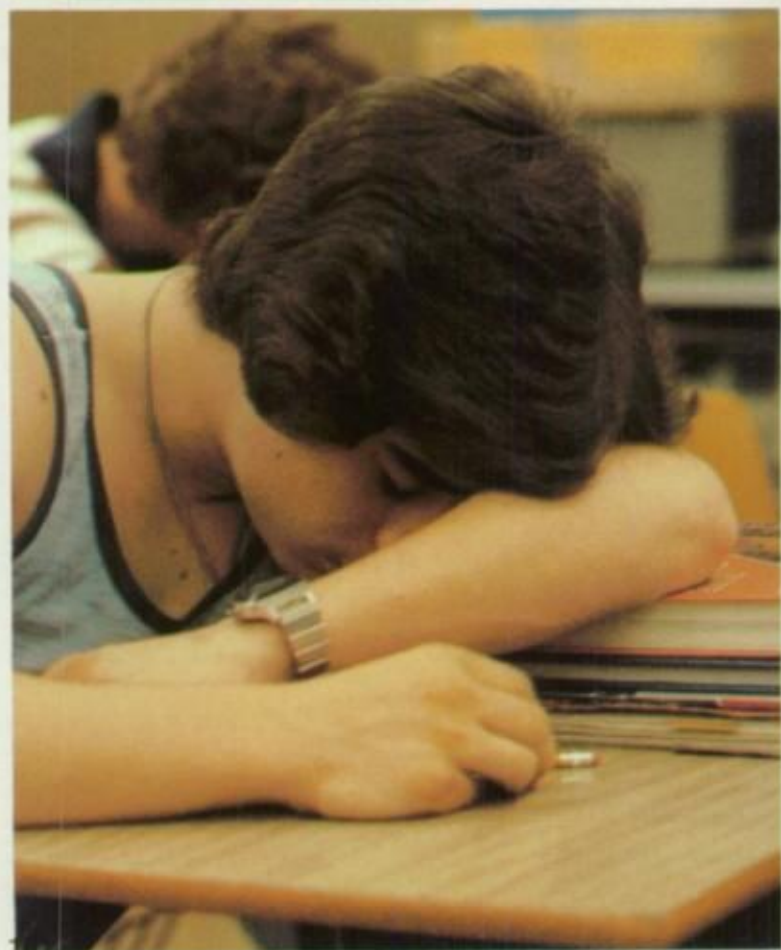

... Unlocking ... Wondering ... Drifting ...

... Listening ... Cheering ... Studying ...

Time —
a beginning?
or an ending?

Our time is now
And so we say
Goodbye to all the carefree days . . .

Activities

The Williams Valley Viking Band was reborn this year. Under the fine direction of Mr. John Potlunas the band had a new burst of spirit. The band increased in number, the music showed much improvement in tone and quality, and the field show was near perfection. Our enthusiastic bandfront squads displayed their fine talents and showed everyone that they really did care. This wouldn't have been possible for them without all the help they received from Jolene Miller. The motto behind the band's get up and go was, "Dump the Klump and long live straight lines." We congratulate the band for their successful year.

Spirit, Pep, Vim and Vigor are elements that all Williams Valley Cheerleaders possess. They have the qualities to encourage a victory and elevate the morals of our players after a loss. Their optimism gives anticipation for a better tomorrow for both the team and the fans.

Born Cheering Leaders!

The Junior and Senior High Choruses, under the sensational direction of Jode Miller, filled the hearts of the audience with happiness for Christmas 1980. "We Need a Little Christmas" was the theme for the concert which was full of surprises, excellent singing and lots of talent. Santa Claus, his elves and reindeer, along with letters to Santa, a ballerina and a group of toy soldiers were just some of the added attractions. Miss Miller's concerts are proven to always be unique and astonishing, this year's concert was no exception.

Singing Out With All Their Might

Bringing Pleasure and Joy to Everyone

Homecoming was a highlight to all this year as thrill and excitement filled the air. Parents and friends waited impatiently to hear the final word. Each girl waited nervously hoping that she would be the one. As the drum roll began, all became quiet and the secret was no longer kept...

"Fiddler on the Roof" 1980 Spring Musical

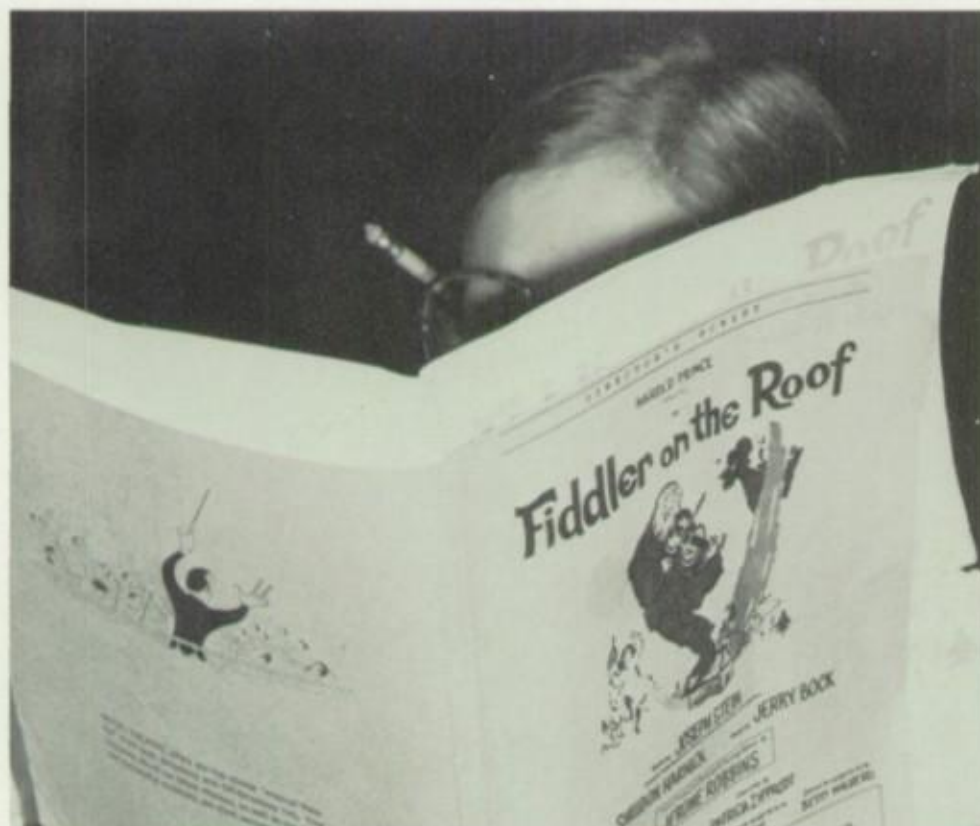

"Fiddler on the Roof" proved to be one of the most outstanding musicals in the history of Williams Valley productions. The cast under the direction of Mr. George Kriz, portrayed the story of Tevye, a poor milkman, his wife, and their five lovely daughters. Tevye's hopes for his children's lives slowly become distorted as they make plans of their own and Anatevka is evacuated. Both the actors and audience were moved at such a spectacular performance which will long linger in our hearts and minds.

Bringing Anatevka to Williams Valley ...

Providing us all with entertainment and enjoyment ...

As the cast displayed their many talents.

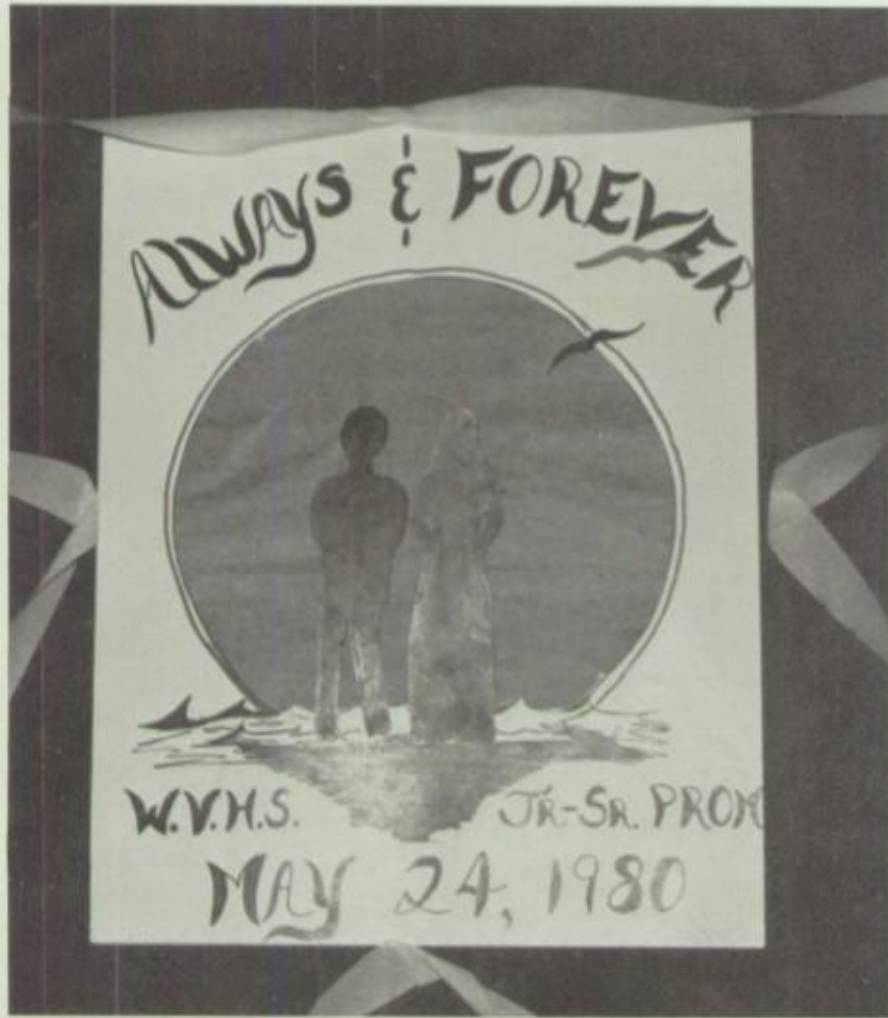

We will love and remember ...

Special moments with those we love and care for — cherished memories of special feelings — dancing cheek to cheek — a warm gentle kiss — The Prom.

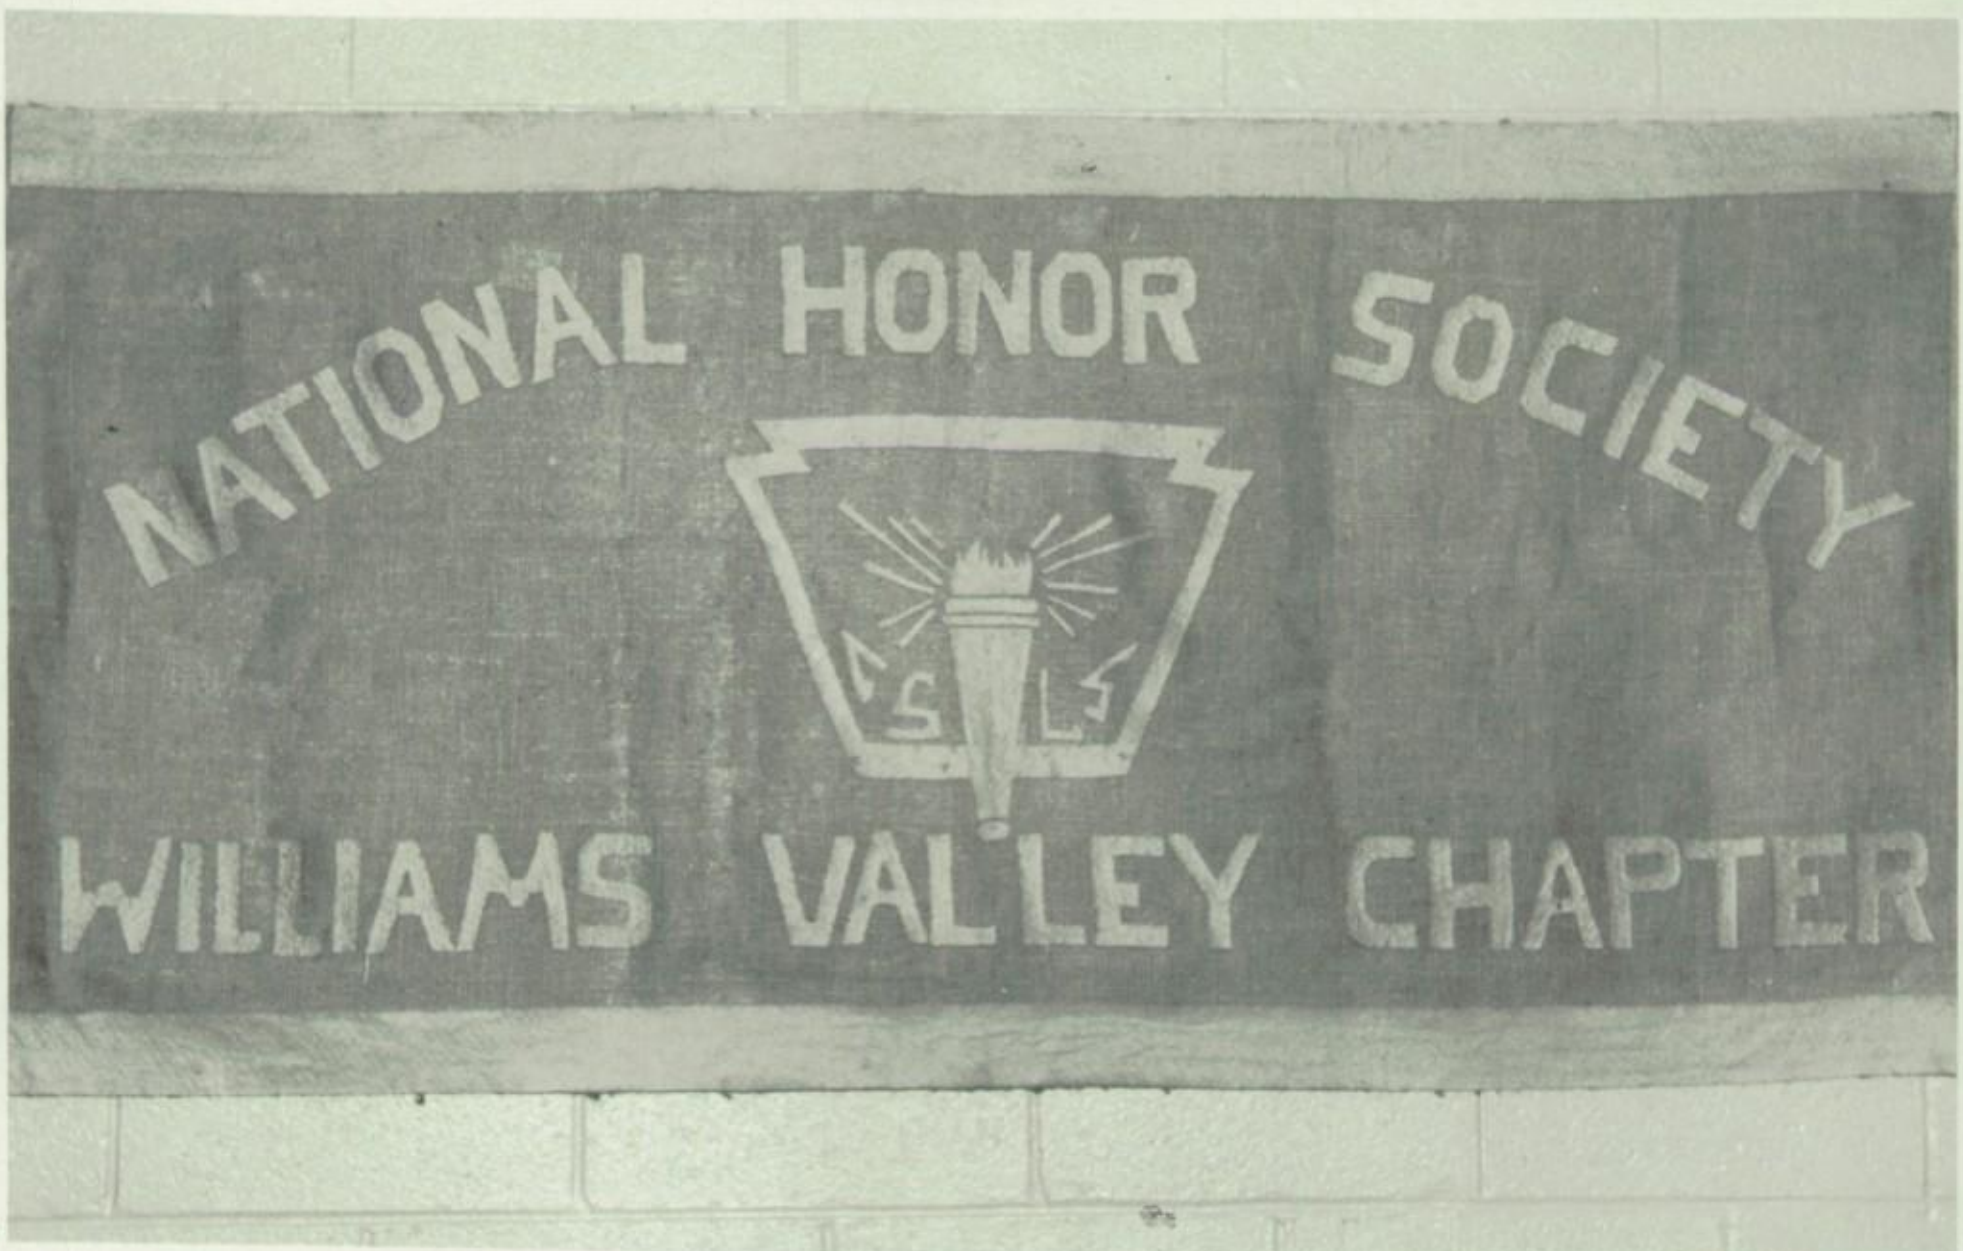

"Always and Forever"

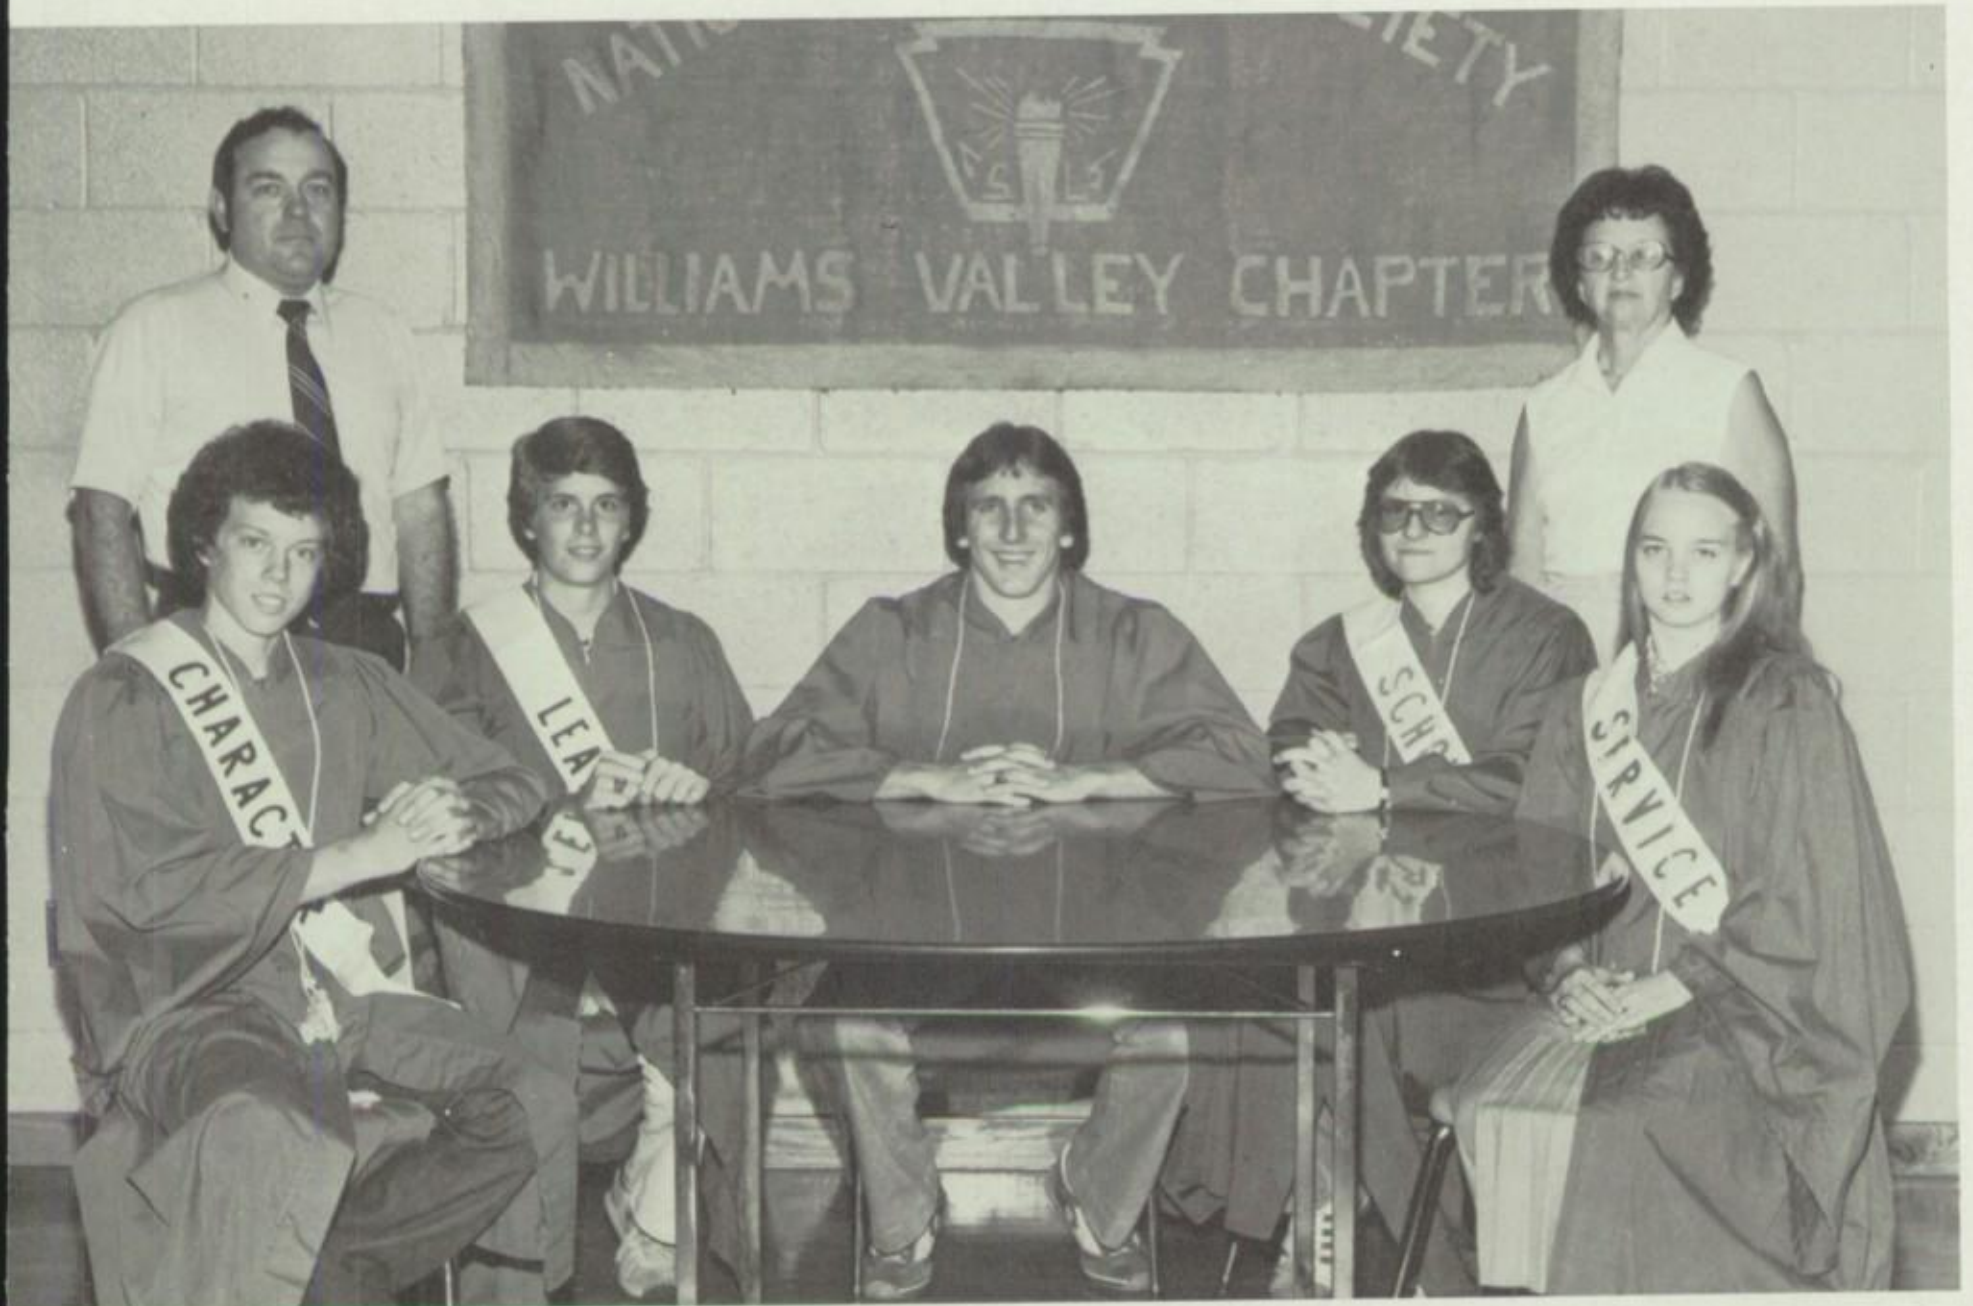

SCHOLARSHIP

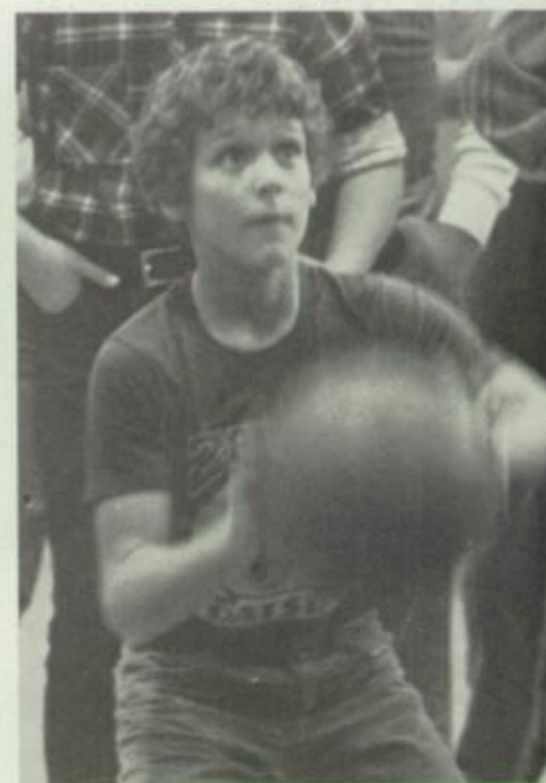

Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service build the foundations of the National Honor Society. In receiving this award students are recognized for their scholastic achievements and interests in community affairs. Members take great pride in this accomplishment as it sets an example for others to be an asset to our school and society.

CHARACTER, LEADERSHIP, AND SERVICE

The Student Council, which is made up of a representative and an alternate from each homeroom, has had a new burst of energy and ideas this year. The group has undertaken many projects to reestablish school pride and student spirit. Such activities as a magazine sale, a Sadie Hawkins Dance, special dress up days, a dec-a-door contest and a King and Queen of Hearts Dance are just some of the many ways Student Council tries to promote student involvement. This group of dedicated and determined students is doing a fine job getting everyone involved and the activities they are sponsoring help to add more pleasure to our time spent in school.

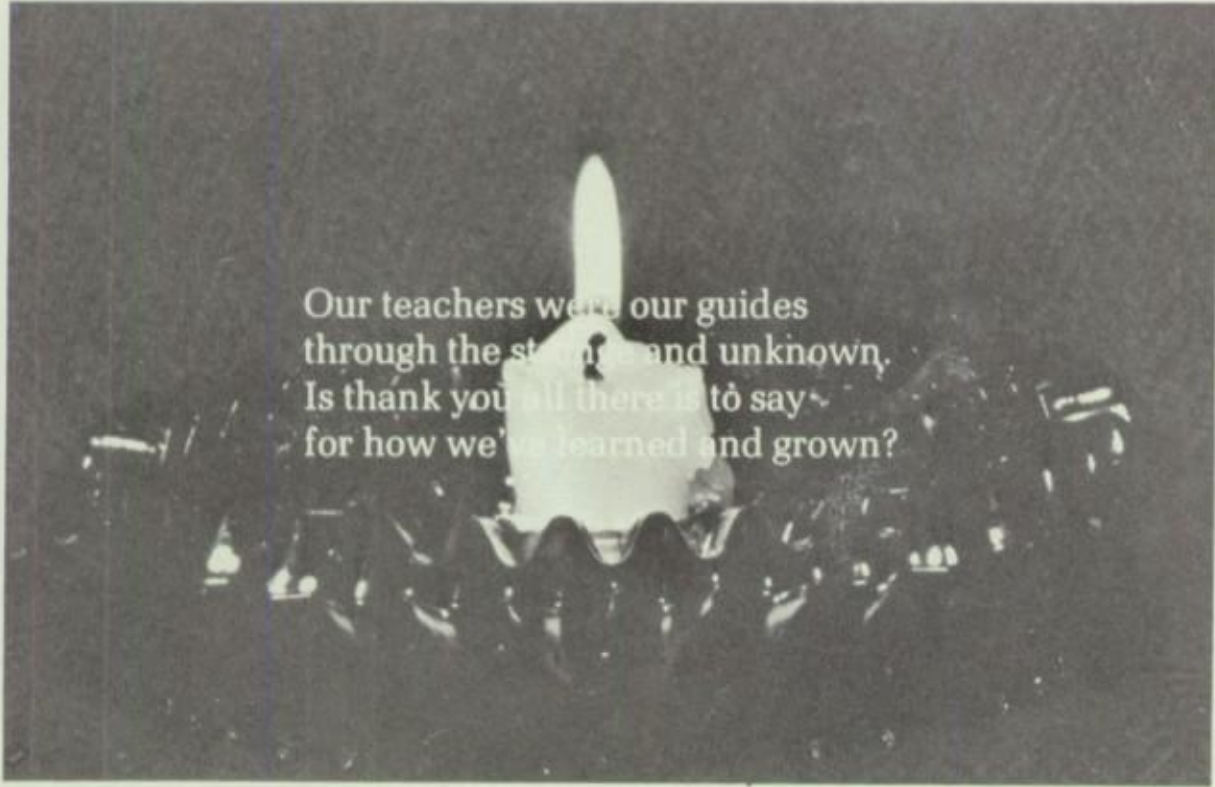

The school newspaper staff is made up of a fine group of students dedicated to informing and entertaining. Ms. Adams, the staff's advisor, helps the staff produce the final products, "The Cover-All". The cover-all does just as it's title says. It covers all the activities that are happening now and all the things that students are interested in the most. The work put into the paper gives the staff the opportunity to learn about some areas of journalism. Their knowledge and efforts can clearly be seen in each and every issue.

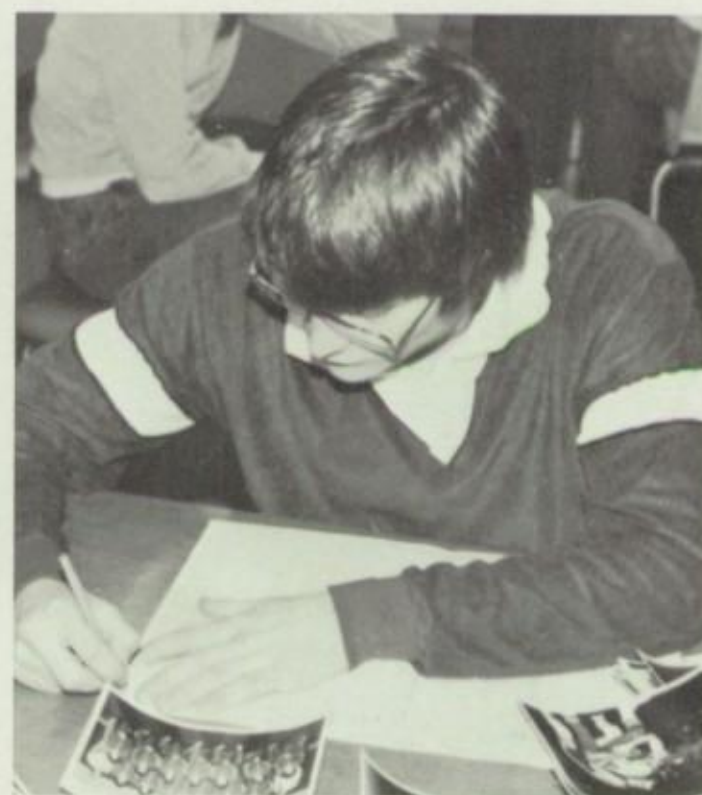

A fine group of seniors, under the fantastic leadership of Mr. Bateman, joined together to make the Yearbook Finance Committee. This newly formed organization is quite important to the yearbook. Each year thousands of dollars must be raised to support the making of the book. It takes much time and effort to accomplish this monetary goal and the committee lessened this large responsibility for the production staff. The members and their supportive leader helped to produce an outstanding edition. For all of your hard work and the help that was so freely given, the Yearbook Staff salutes you!

Our teachers were our guides through the strange and unknown.
Is thank you all there is to say for how we've learned and grown?

The Yearbook Staff is composed of many unique individuals who possess many different talents and skills. With the aid of their capable advisor, Mrs. Artz, these attributions are combined quite successfully to make the Valhalla. This year's staff was under the fine editorship of Bill Wollyung who dedicated himself to making this year's book the best ever.

Sports

The 1979-80 baseball season proved the skill and talents possessed by the players, taught endurance and self-determination, and made Williams Valley a terrific championship team. The team completed the season with an 18-3 record, and won the division title. This was the first baseball crown for W.V. since the start of official competition eleven years ago. To add to the splendor of this prestigious accomplishment, the Vikings placed third in state playoffs.

Team effort and guidance from Coach Matter certainly made it possible for the great outcome of the season. We are all proud of Williams Valley's Championship Team!!

Along With Good Sportsmanship

Prove to Make a "Championship Team."

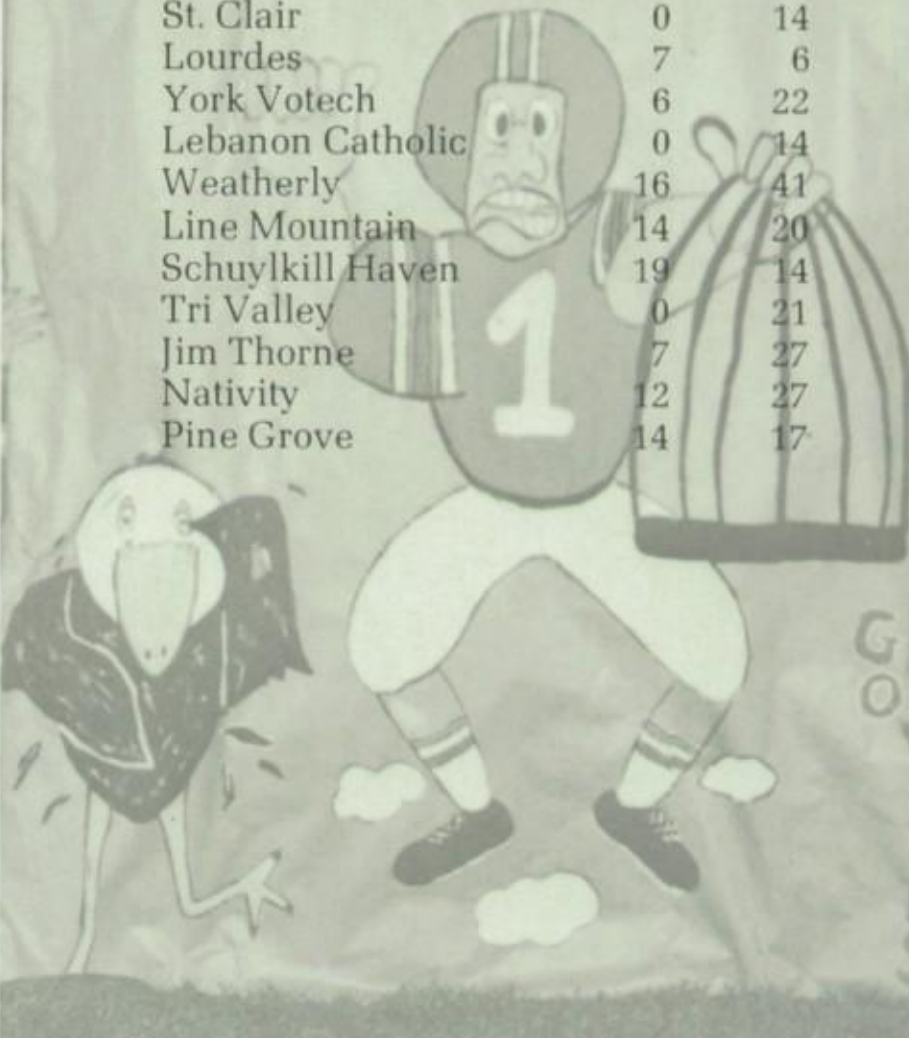

Our vivacious Vikings had an extremely successful season. With their 9-2 record they held the spirit of the fans and kept them on their feet. Jim Buggy placed second in the state for most points scored. This was made possible by the great team effort and talent. Williams Valley will sorely miss the eleven seniors who are leaving us, but will always remember what they were to us — a great football team.

A Fine Group of Seniors and an Excellent Coaching Staff ...

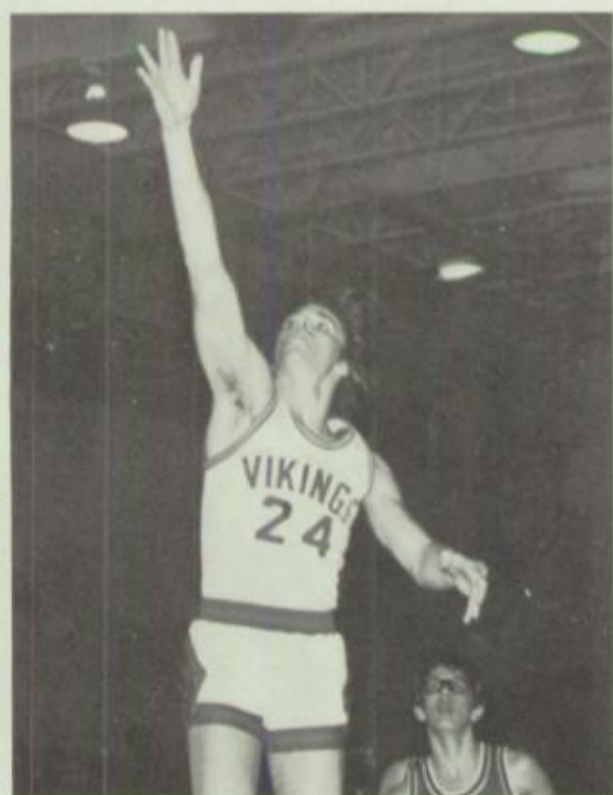

... Proved to Everyone That Our Vikings Are Still Vicious!

The Viking basketball team made a striking comeback this year under the splendid coaching skills of first year mentor Lee Reiser. A strong nucleus of seniors, backed by a supportive group of underclassmen led the Vikes to victory. Senior, Terry Jones, reached a much coveted goal, scoring 1000 points. This is the first time anyone obtained such a record at Williams Valley since 1969. Lots of sacrifice, teamwork and a ton of perseverance held the Viking team together as they experienced a terrific season.

Along With a Pinch of Luck

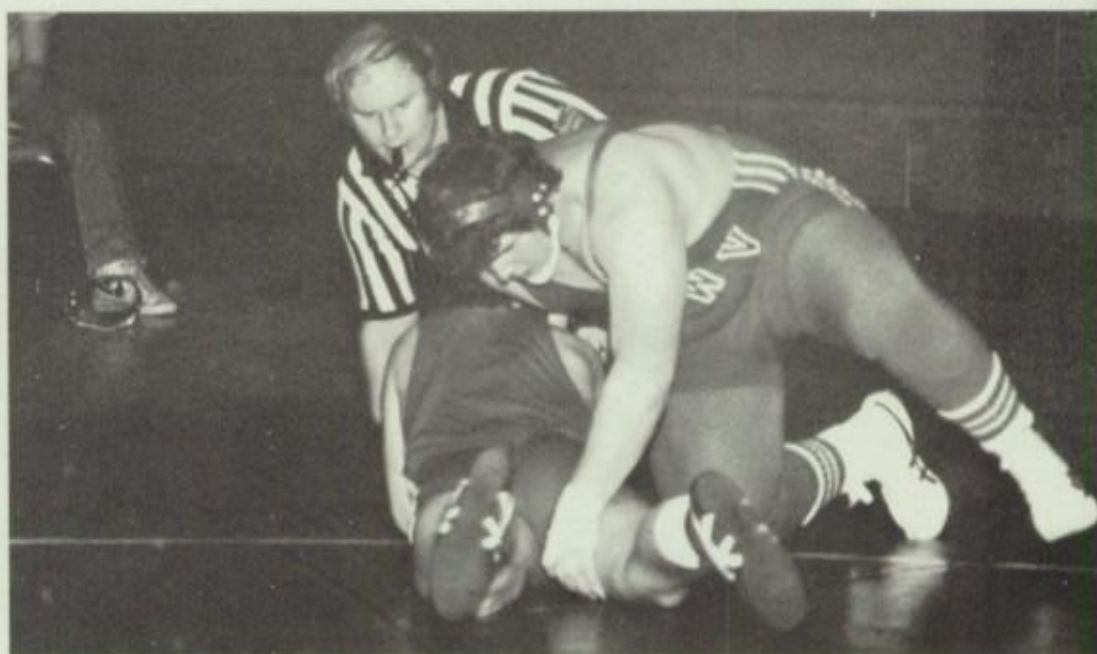

Produced the Fine Viking Team!

The Williams Valley Mat Rats strove forward again this year, trying to reach the top, with all their muscle and might. After getting off to a slow start, the Mat Rats found themselves and were able to "get their act together" to produce a winning record for the second part of the season. This group, extremely devoted and determined wrestlers, proved to everyone that they wouldn't give up. Such characteristics determine the difference between a losing season and a winning season. Our Mat Rats certainly demonstrated their fortitude.

Swinging into Action ...

An expanding trend in the Williams Valley sports program gives the "Swingers" an opportunity to show their talents. A great deal of concentration, individual skill, and team effort offers a true feeling of satisfaction to our players. An important asset to this year's team was Jim Casey who received third place in the All League Meet. Next year looks to be a promising one as our players strive to make the young team even better.

Softball ...

The 1979-80 Vikingettes softball team, under the fine coaching of Mrs. Fern Rhody and Miss Jode Miller, gave their all to every game this year. The team displayed its pride, determination, hustle and "guts." They never gave up and always fought to win. The team finished with a 6-10 record and is looking forward to an even better season this year with a strong group of seniors returning.

... Our Vikingettes ...

Our Vikingettes possessed the needed ingredients for making a great team. Courage for persevering every duel, willingness to graciously accept victory and quickly overcome defeat, and an optimistic point of view, constantly kept them all going. This season was devoted to making a good team even better. Chris Carl and Joyce Miller, the seniors of the crew, gave their all to add to the splendor of this season. Either from on the court or from on the bench, the girls never stopped giving each other their support.

Proving Their Determination to Themselves and Everyone!

A group of very dedicated and determined young athletes struggled through another trying season. Coach Donna Schonour put forth an all-out effort to help an inexperienced team. Even though the girls didn't produce a winning season they never stopped trying. They showed everyone that they don't give up easily. To our Volleyball Team we wish lots of luck for future seasons.

This year's flag football season proved to be just as action packed as last year's. The advisors, Fern Rhody and Jode Miller helped the girls thoroughly enjoy themselves. Although the games are meant to be played just for fun, they become very competitive and aggressive. Joyce Miller was honored this year at flag football's parents night as the most valuable player. It can never be said that any of the girls involved in this non-contact sport leave the field without bumps, bruises and sore muscles everywhere.

Improving Our School Environment

The many different facets of Williams Valley, along with the problems that exist, must be taken care of by the capable and dependable hands of special personnel. Custodians keep the building running smoothly while the cafeteria workers busily prepare wholesome lunches. Other employees issue requisitions and carefully keep the paperwork. All of the special personnel are recognized for their important input to our school environment.

As the hands of time slowly turn away the days and years, so are our lives being turned and molded to make us who and what we are. Time has been good to Mr. Harvey L. Schoffstall, to whom we dedicate this page.

Mr. Schoffstall has been a dedicated teacher at Williams Valley for the past thirty-three years. He has strived to develop good rapport with his students and to teach them well. He achieved his goals quite successfully.

Mr. Schoffstall excels not only in the teaching area, but he excels as an athletic director as well. He has donated eighteen years of service to our school in filling this position. Time, hard work, and much effort have made Mr. Schoffstall a very special athletic director. His name is now recorded in the Harrisburg Chapter of PIAA Football Officials Hall of Fame. He is the first non-coach individual to receive this outstanding honor.

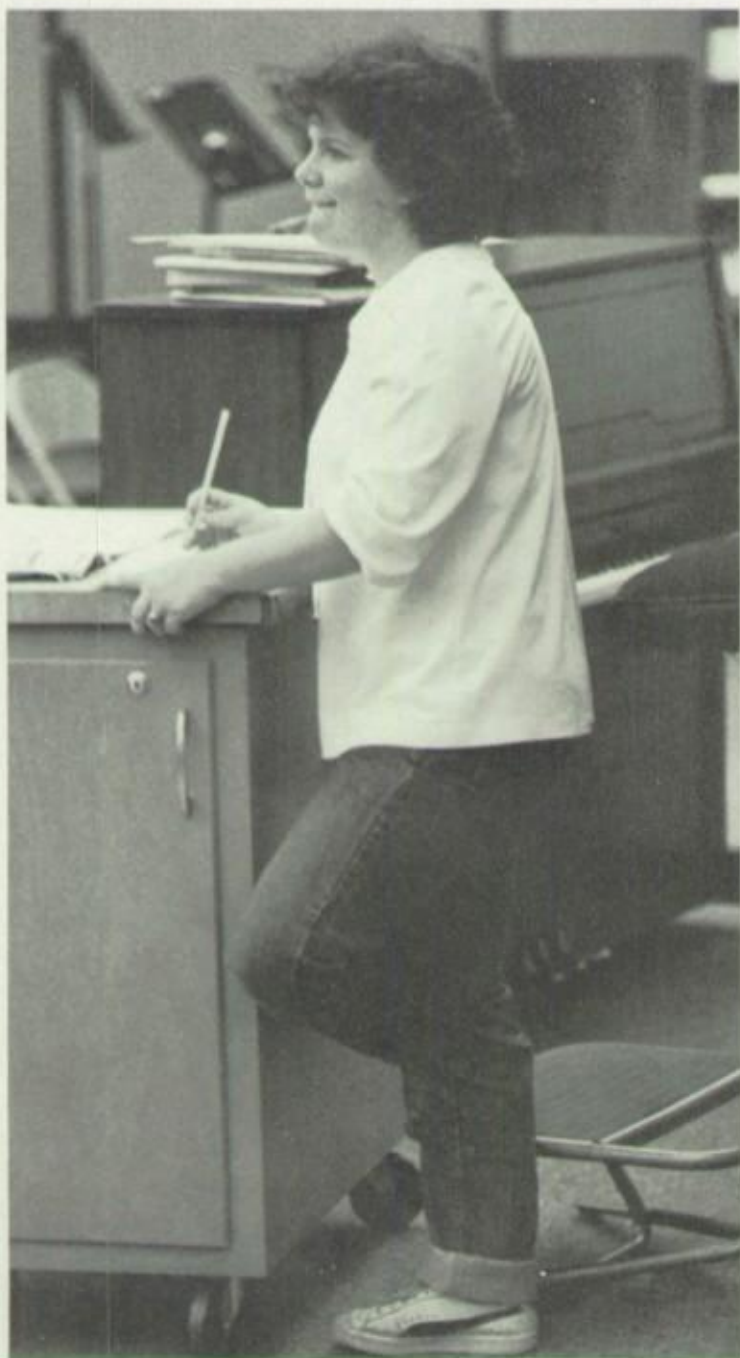

The time has come for Williams Valley to say farewell to a friend, a teacher, and an extraordinary athletic director. You, Mr. Harvey L. Schoffstall, will never be far from our minds as we remember the fine example you have set for us.

Each day that passes brings us closer to the end of another year. Once again we sit back and reminisce of times gone by. We think of writing papers and pondering over mathematical problems. We remember all of the times we've turned to our teachers to guide us through difficult situations.

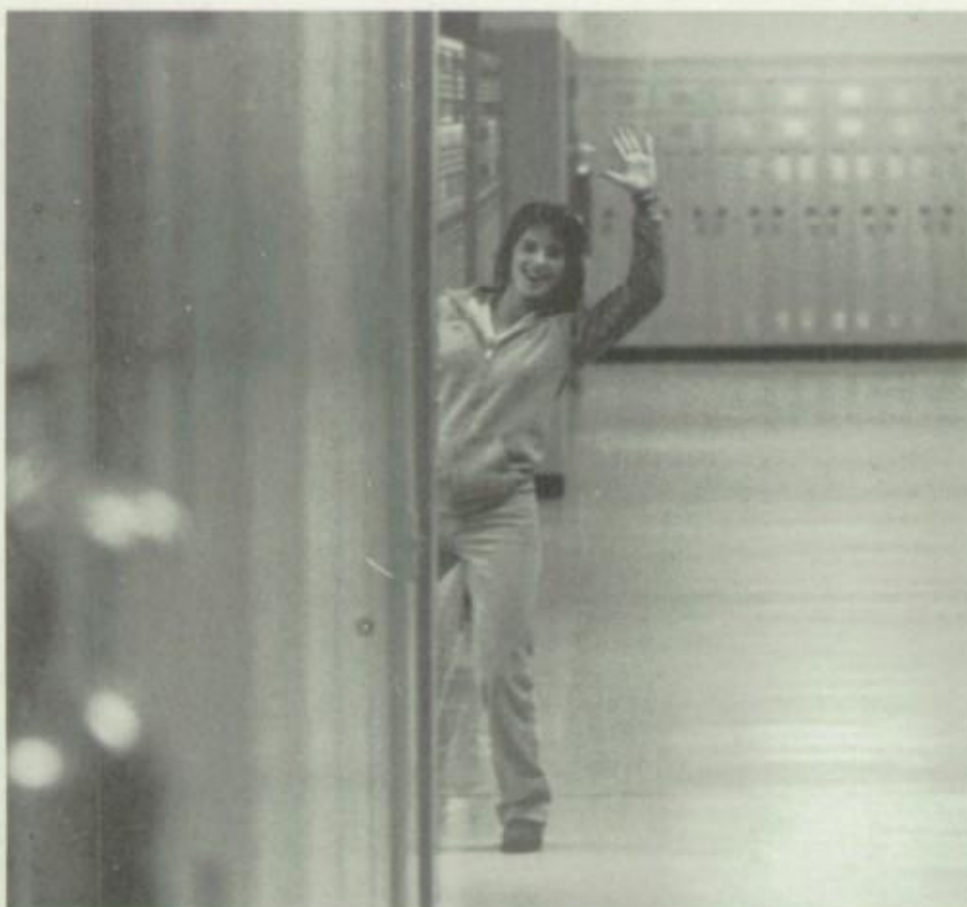

We recall when we were at our best and when we thought we were at the end of our ropes. We remember all of the things that made us smile and helped to make things just a little bit better.

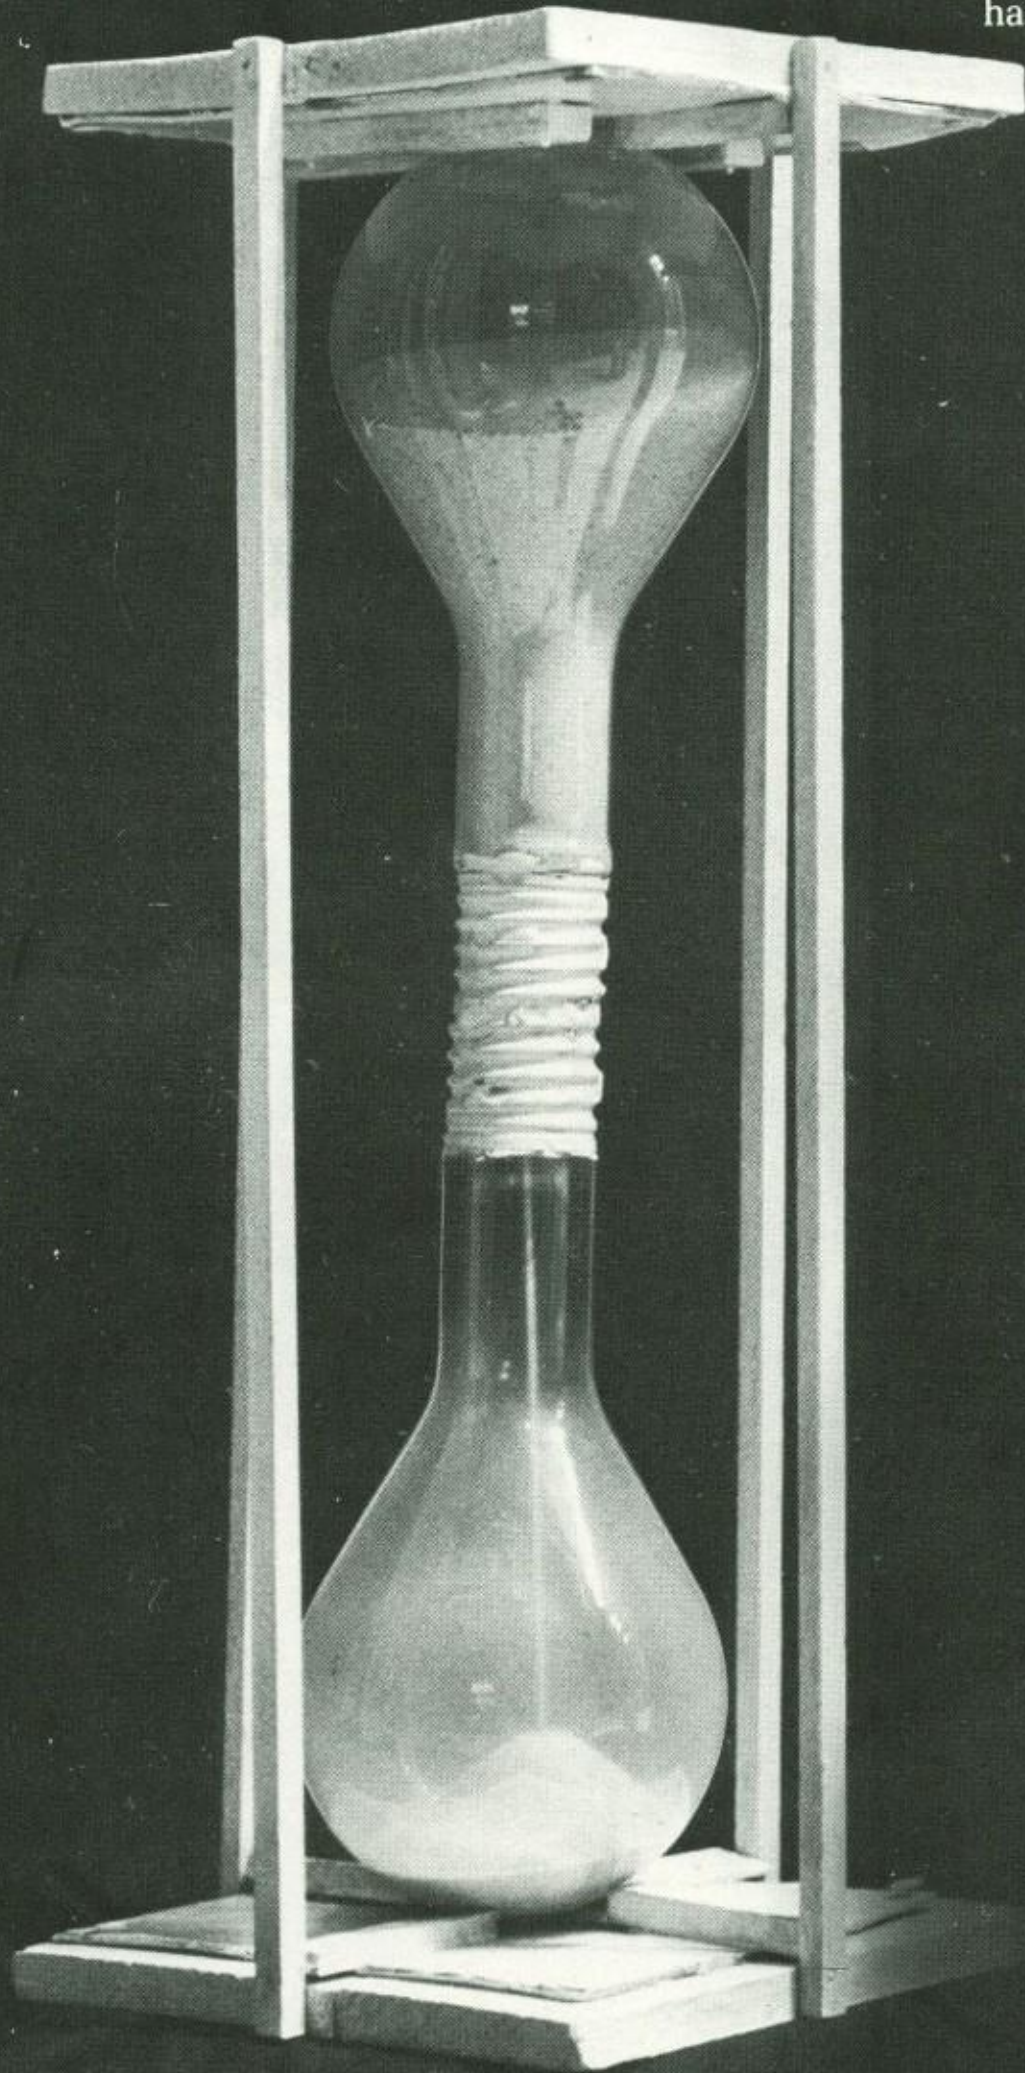

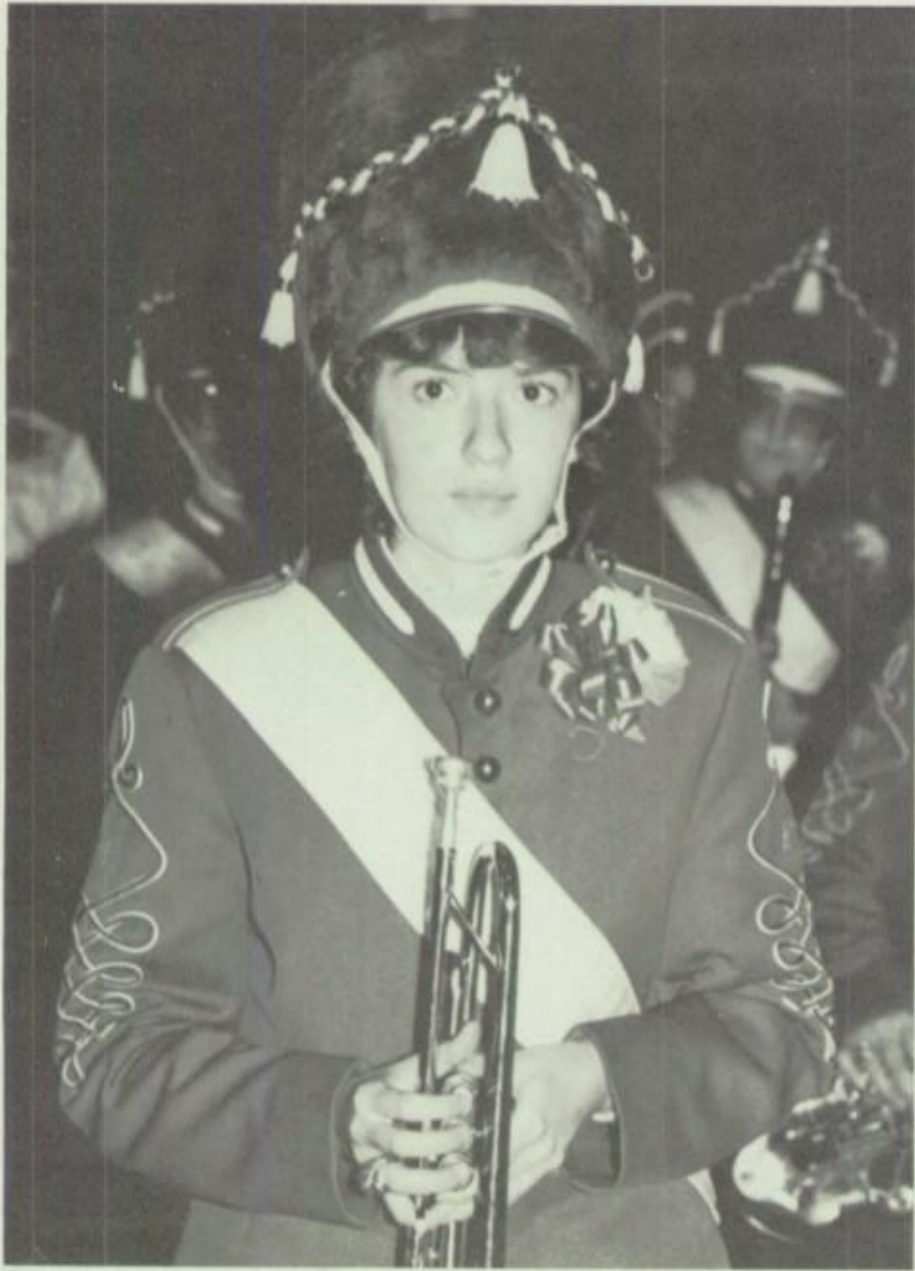

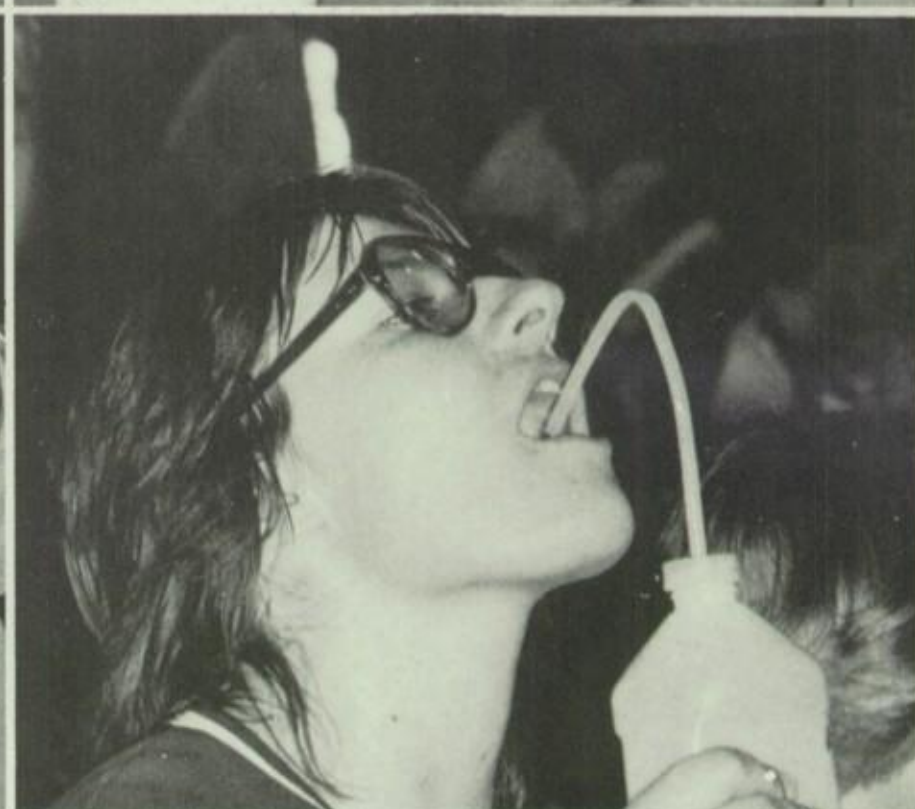

Many of us have just begun a long, hard journey upward. There are things to be learned and hundreds of trials to face. Sometimes we will be able to rely on the help of others and sometimes we will have to face situations alone. It is these things which will make us what we are to be. Time is the main factor here because it holds the key for all that is to come. We watch and wait to see what time has to offer us and wonder who we will become.

There are so very many aspects of our lives which seem unclear to us and arouse numerous questions in our minds. It is often difficult to get by these hurdles but we find that if we concentrate, try our very hardest, and fight for what we believe in, we will always anticipate success.

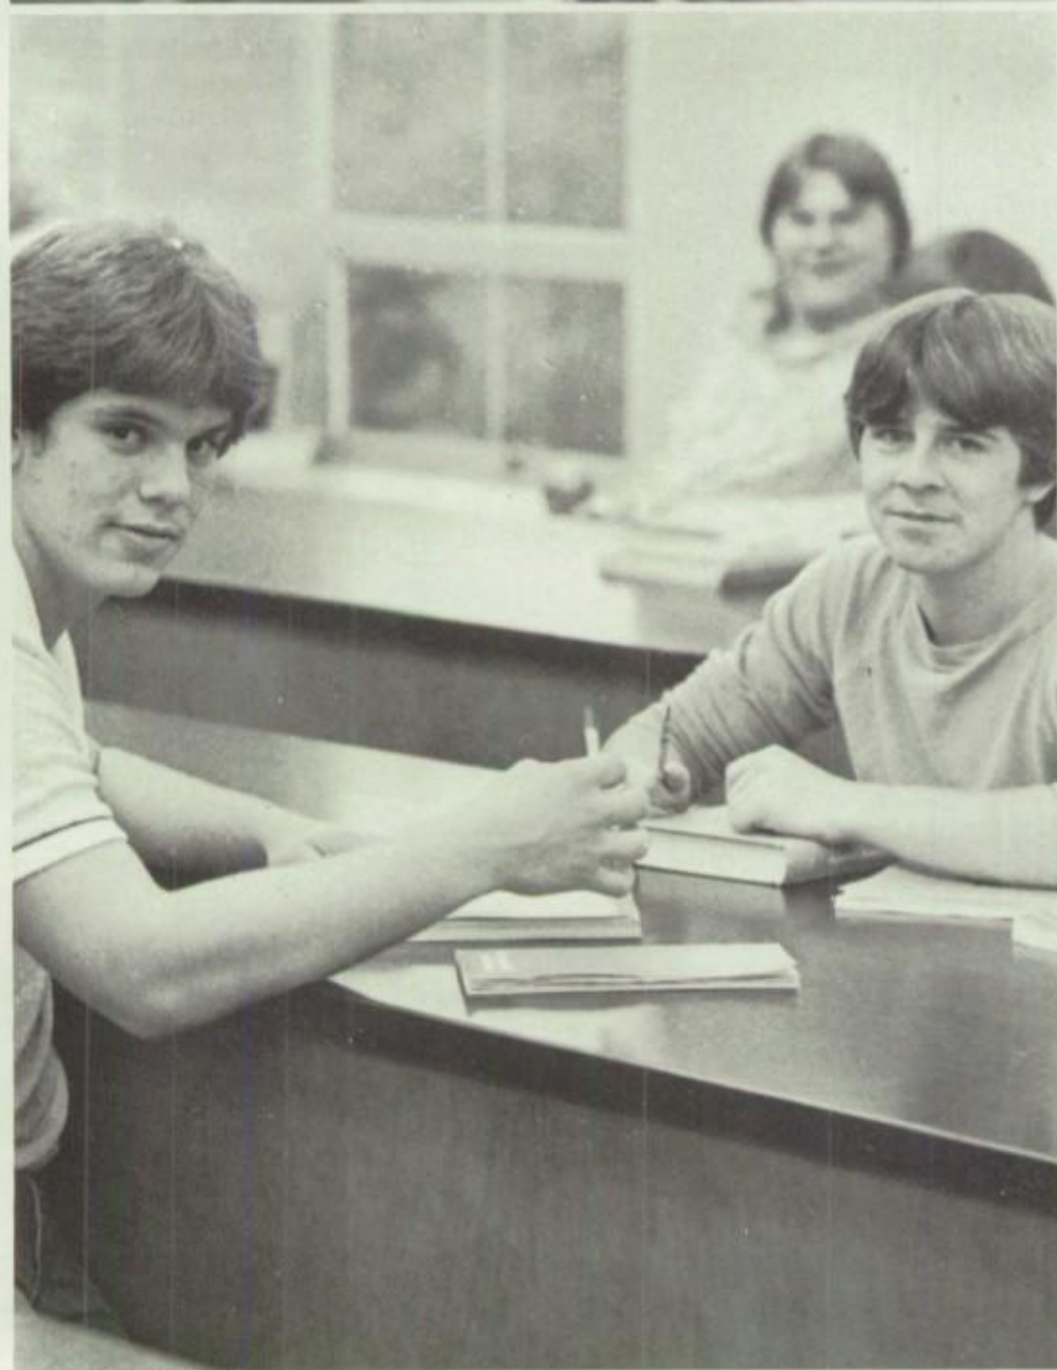

School days, how they've flown and gone so fast
I remember when they all began so far back in the past.
I've grown from such a little child to that which I am now
I've become so independent and so very strong somehow
I've set so many goals, some which seem unreachable
I've learned so many things, things I thought to me unreachable.
I've made myself a person to whom I owe respect
I've had much help from my teachers none will I forget.
Each passing day brings new hope for things that yet remain
And friends become more dear to me, I love them all the same
As my precious school days draw closer to an end
I realize what they've meant to me, how important they have been.
I hate to have to say good-bye to you my Williams Valley
For many long years you've been my life, many things you have shown me
So now with tear filled eyes, I bid a sweet adieu
To all the things I love so well
And start my life anew

by,
Kathy Klinger

As our days at Williams Valley slowly come to a close, we reflect on those things which have been so important to us. The many friends we've made through the year will never be far from our thoughts. They have been our confidantes, shared our tears of joy and sorrow, and gave us much companionship. We have gained so much through these friendships for we have won and lost together and helped each other through thick and thin . . .

For this, my friend, and all of the many things you have been to me, I will never be able to thank you enough. Time will never erase all of the precious memories that we share.

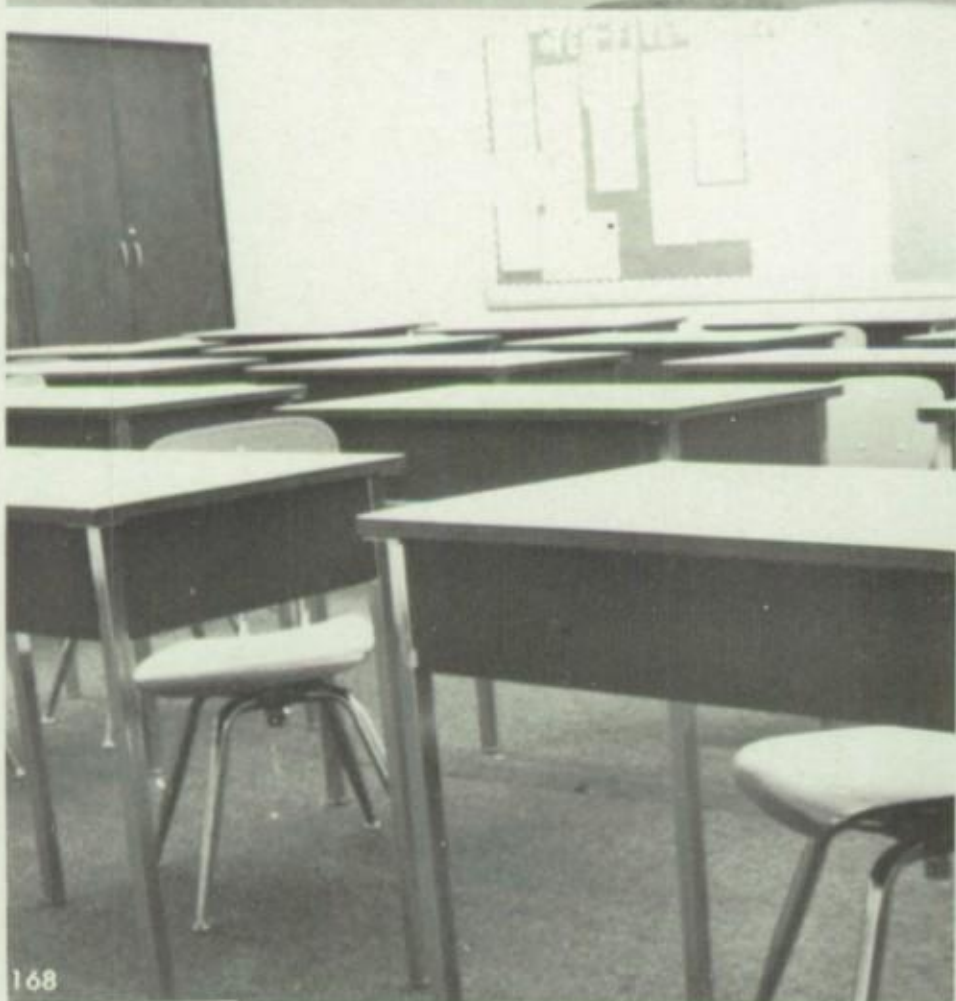

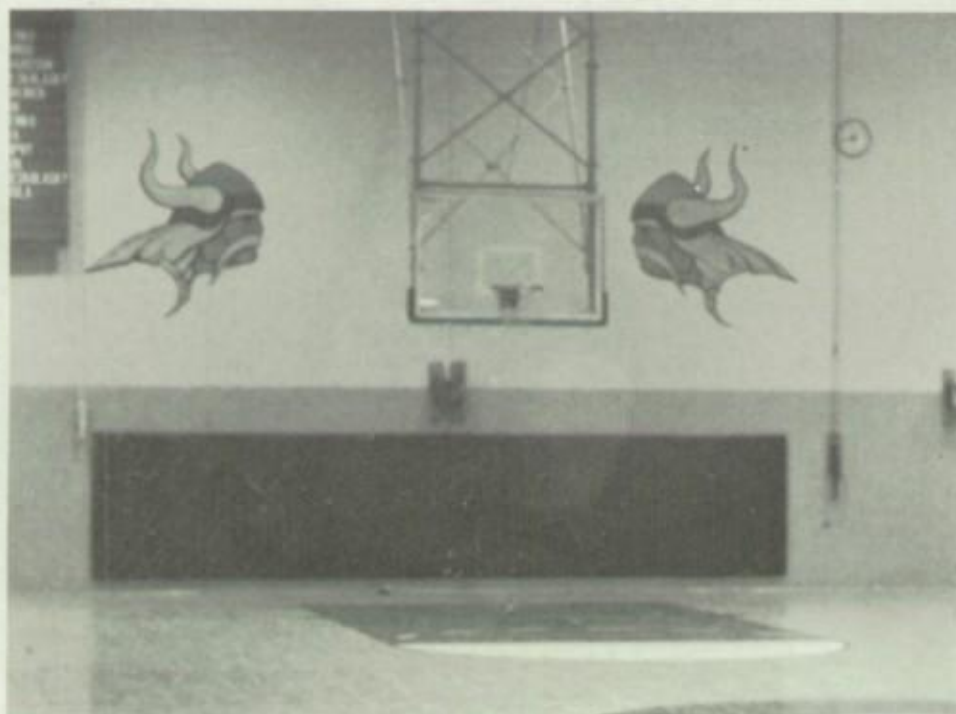

As time gradually steals away the many seconds of our lives we come to reality with ourselves. We know that we will never be able to go back to the seasons of the past to relive all of the glorious moments that we've experienced. We will never again walk through the crowded halls ringing with laughter and loud conversation nor will we sit in the classrooms waiting eagerly for the day to come to an end.

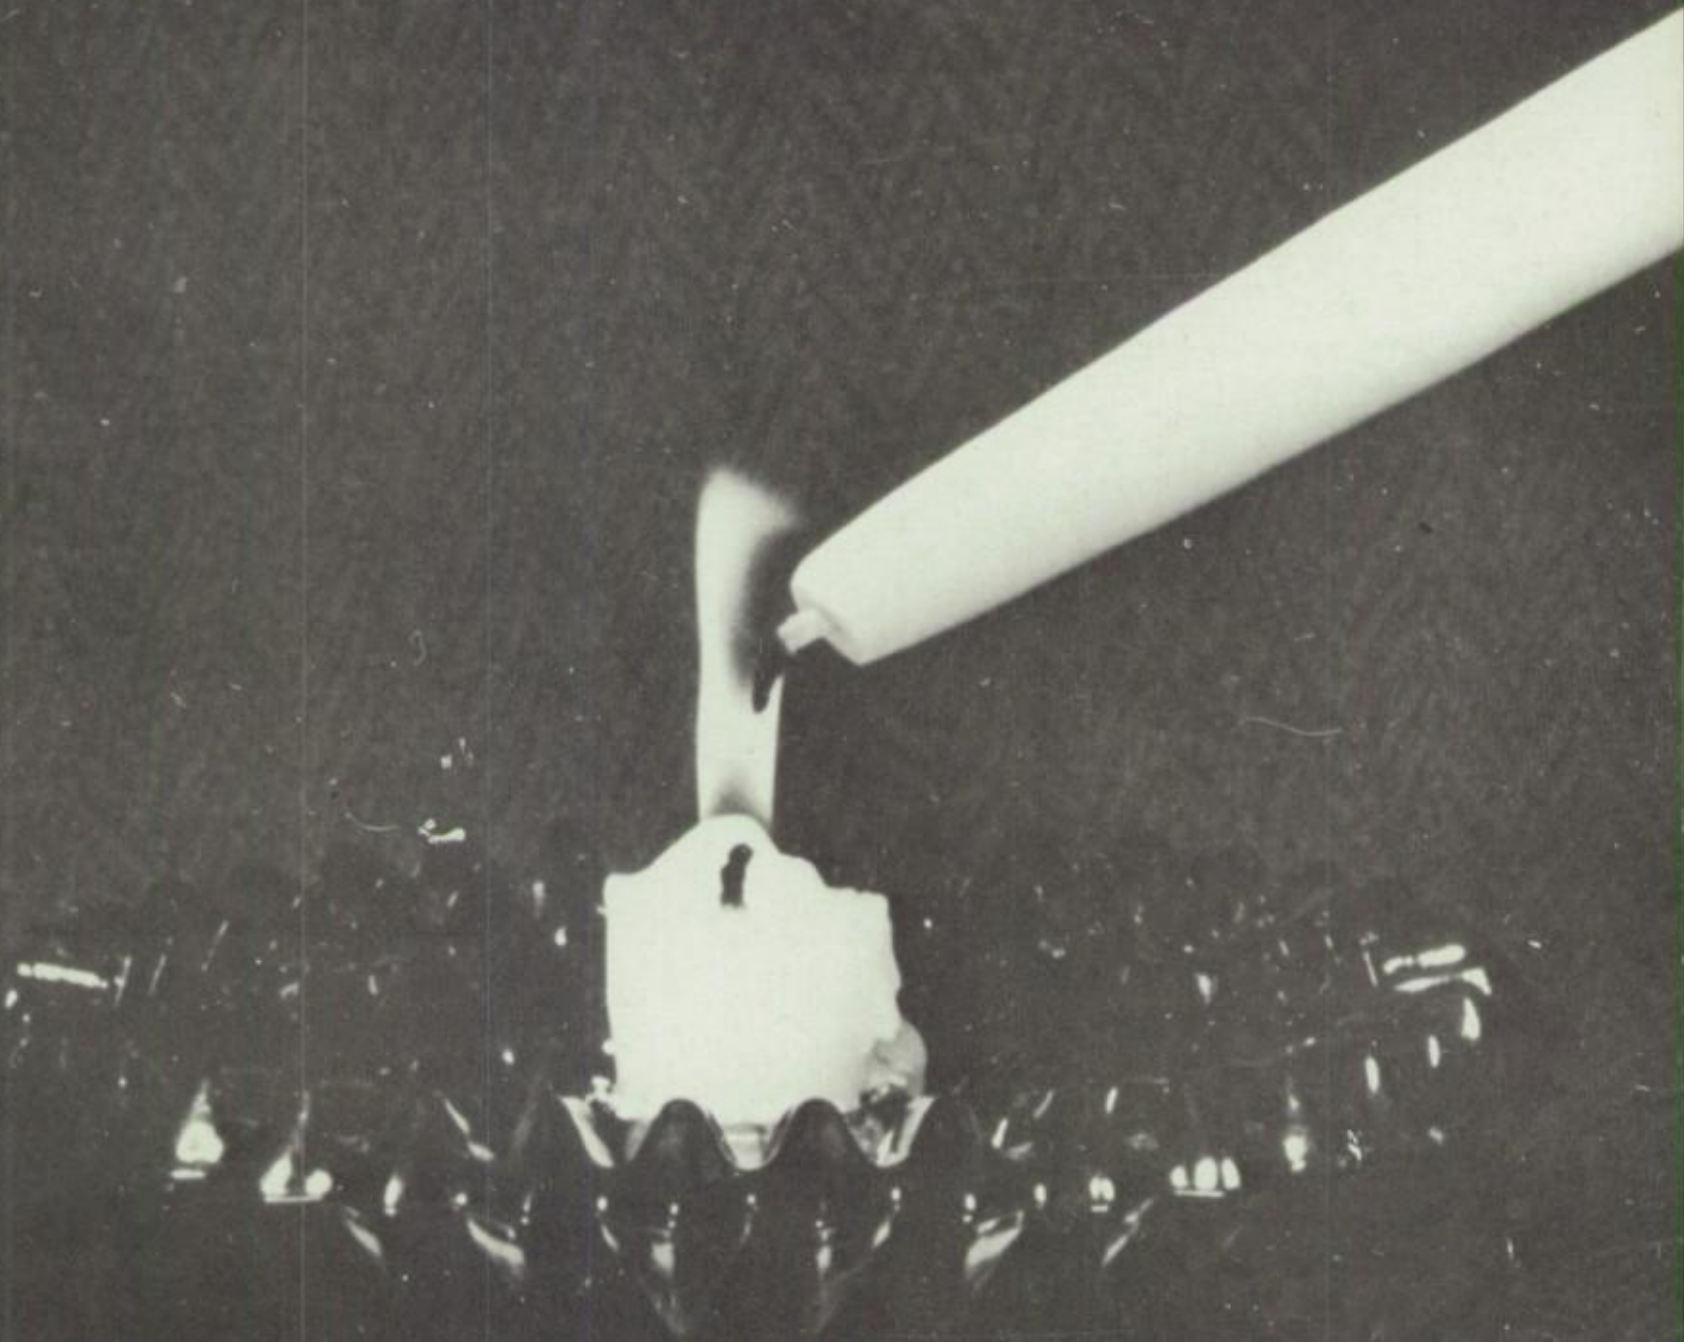

All of the many things which have been so much a part of us will be in the past. Many of these have become such an element of our everyday lives that we will be lost without them.

One thing is certain . . . we will never pass this way again. It is time for us to bid the Alma Mater that we hold so dear a warm and saddened farewell.

We look back and whisper
thank-you and goodbye,
The relief isn't there,
just tears in our eyes.
We couldn't wait; but as we reached
for the dawn,
We realize another year has come and gone.
